'PHCS SnuggerFLOOR has made such a difference,' said Brian. 'We noticed the improvement immediately!'

SNUG IN SNOW!

In the cold spells of 2018, when snow hit hard – particularly in the depths of Wales – both Brian and Colin's park homes who had been fitted with PHCS SnuggerFLOOR were the only two homes on the park that didn't suffer frozen pipes or loss of heating.

Brian explained: 'PHCS SnuggerFLOOR is absolutely brilliant! When everyone else contended with frozen pipes and no heating, we sat in the comfort of our homes admiring the snowcapped landscape! Plus the heating was only on 15 degrees! That proves the effectiveness of PHCS SnuggerFLOOR!'

POSITIVELY INSPIRATIONAL!

A cosy home is always welcomed, particularly for less mobile people. Despite suffering some very poor health recently Brian is amazingly bright and positive. It won't be long until he's back to his active self.

Brian and Mai used to enjoy holidays abroad and have visited some fabulous places such as Mauritius, Australia,

Singapore, Hong Kong, Hawaii (and more). They no longer go abroad but they have a wonderful holiday caravan in Aberystwyth on the Welsh coast that they visit often.

Brian is now 82 and Mai 81. Brian gardens with Mai and enjoys writing. He also drives a car with hand controls. Quite remarkably, Brian is also instrumental in helping other less fortunate people coming out of the spinal unit at Oswestry Orthopaedic Hospital where he is the oldest wheelchair skills trainer. He is a real inspiration to so many. 2018 was the year of Brian and Mai celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary. They received a letter of congratulations and photograph from the Queen!

Brian and Mai are a fabulous team together with a wonderful family. They now have seven very special great grandchildren the most recent born in Cambodia who is delightful. Fortunately Skype and technology enables them to be in regular touch, no matter the distance.

Brian and Mai have shared so much and Brian says he couldn't have coped without Mai. She is an ex-nurse so cares for him really well. They are nestled in their lovely park home in the knowledge that all is sound and in good condition, and fully endorse park home living.

What could be better!
